From: Mimi Purnell, Acting Director, Workforce Development Division

Date: January 21, 2005

Subject: Business Opportunities

PURPOSE:

To inform Local Workforce Development Boards (Boards) of business opportunities with Mac Tools for job seekers, including veterans, interested in starting their own businesses.

BACKGROUND:

Mac Tools approached the President's National Hire Veterans Committee and expressed interest in targeting veterans to become Mac Tools professional sales distributors. Mac Tools, an international hand tools industry serving the United States, Canada, Europe, and Japan, has business opportunities available for veterans and other job seekers interested in starting their own businesses as professional sales distributors (distributors).

Mac Tools offers its distributors:

- a potential for high sales and, consequently, a higher earning potential in offering a high-quality, high-demand product;
- a customer base that may increase as frequently as the distributor's ability to find new customers;
- assignment of a unique territory, thereby eliminating competition from other distributors;
- a simple start-up process;
- access to Mac Tool's distributor financing program;
- no franchise fees; and
- no royalties.

Additionally, distributors are linked to Team Mac, a training and support system, which includes the use of Mac Tool's business system. For further information, contact:
