Flood Disaster Aid Available to Workers in Cooke, Coryell, Denton, Grayson, Lampasas and Tarrant counties

Self-employed workers also may qualify for Disaster Unemployment Assistance

AUSTIN – According to the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC), workers in Cooke, Coryell, Denton, Grayson, Lampasas and Tarrant counties who lost work or earnings due to severe floods between June 16 through 18, 2007, have until August 2, 2007, to apply for Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA) under Presidential Disaster Declaration FEMA-1709-DR.

To be eligible for help under Presidential Disaster Declaration FEMA-1709-DR, you must:

- Have worked or been scheduled to work in the disaster area, but because of the disaster no longer have a job or a place to work in the area, or you could not get to your place of work because of disaster damage;
- Have been prevented from working by an injury or illness as a direct result of the disaster; or
- Have become the head of the household and need employment because the head of the household died as a result of the disaster.

To claim DUA, affected individuals' unemployment must be a direct result of one of the following:

- The physical damage or destruction of the place of employment;
- The physical inaccessibility of the place of employment due to its closure by the federal, state or local government in immediate response to the disaster; or
- Lack of work, or loss of revenues, if, prior to the disaster, the employer or self-employed business received at least a majority of its revenue or income from an entity in the major disaster area that was damaged or destroyed in the disaster or an entity in the major disaster area closed by the federal, state, or local government.

Often, business owners who are self-employed are not aware of potential benefits to which they may be entitled. If you are self-employed, but have lost all or part of your livelihood as a result of intense flooding, you may well be eligible for benefits. You must provide federal income tax forms (Schedules SE and Schedule C or Schedule F) to receive disaster unemployment benefits.

To receive DUA benefits, self-employed individuals and workers must provide documentation within 21 days from the day the claim was filed indicating an employment record at the time of the disaster or verification of the weeks the applicant was scheduled to work. TWC officials understand that because of property losses, some individuals may not have necessary information readily available. Each claim is considered individually, therefore if you believe you may be eligible for assistance, please call the TWC Tele-Center network at one of the numbers listed below Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
