The Texas Workforce Commission (Commission) proposes new Subchapter T, relating to Career Schools and Colleges, as follows:

Subchapter T, Career Schools Hearings, §§807.381–807.395

- PART I. PURPOSE, BACKGROUND, AND AUTHORITY
- PART II. EXPLANATION OF INDIVIDUAL PROVISIONS
- PART III. IMPACT STATEMENTS
- PART IV. COORDINATION ACTIVITIES

PART I. PURPOSE, BACKGROUND, AND AUTHORITY

The purpose of the proposed rule change is to set forth procedures for the appeal and hearing process for those entities and individuals subject to regulation by the Commission under Chapter 132 of the Texas Education Code. Under a separate, but concurrent, rulemaking proposal, the Commission is proposing the repeal of Chapter 823, General Hearings rules, containing the hearings and appeals process for career schools and colleges, which has been modified and incorporated into Chapter 807.

PART II. EXPLANATION OF INDIVIDUAL PROVISIONS

The Commission proposes new Subchapter T, Career Schools Hearings, as follows:

§807.381. Purpose

Section 807.381 states that the purpose of Subchapter T is to set out the hearings process as authorized by Agency rules and Chapter 132 of the Texas Education Code.

§807.382. Definitions

Section 807.382 adds definitions, retained with minor modifications from the concurrent repeal of Chapter 823, which are referenced throughout Subchapter T.

Section 807.382(1) defines "appellant" as a party or the party's authorized hearing representative who files an appeal from an appealable determination or decision.

Section 807.382(2) defines "date of notice" as the date the notice is received—unless good cause exists for the hearing officer to determine otherwise.

Section 807.382(3) defines "date of request of hearing" as the date on which the appellant or the hearing representative filed a written notice of appeal with the Agency by hand delivery, facsimile, or mail. If an appeal is mailed to the Agency, it is completed as of the postmark date on the envelope containing the appeal request, unless good cause exists for the hearing officer to determine otherwise. If an appeal is hand delivered or faxed after 5 p.m., the date of request must be the following day.

Section 807.382(4) defines "hearing" as an informal, orderly, and readily available proceeding held before an impartial hearing officer. A party or hearing representative may present evidence to show that the Agency's determination should be reversed, affirmed, or modified.

Section 807.382(5) defines "hearing officer" as an Agency employee designated to conduct impartial hearings and issue final administrative decisions.

Section 807.382(6) defines "hearing representative" as any individual authorized by a party to assist in presenting the party's appeal, including legal counsel or another individual. Each party may have a hearing representative to assist in presenting the party's appeal.

Section 807.382(7) defines "party" as the person or entity with the right to participate in a hearing authorized in applicable statute or rule.

§807.383. Information on Right of Appeal

Section 807.383 sets forth that an issuer of a determination shall inform the career school applicant or any party directly aggrieved by the determination of the right to a hearing. The notice shall explain the procedure for an appeal, the applicant's or party's right of appeal, and the right to be represented by others, including legal counsel.

§807.384. Request for Hearing

Section 807.384 sets forth procedures for requesting a hearing.

Section 807.384(a) provides that the party seeking review of a determination under this subchapter relating to career school hearings shall request a hearing in writing within 15 days after receipt of notice of the determination.

Section 807.384(b) states that the request shall be addressed as provided in the determination, state the nature of the determination, the name and identifying information of the requesting party, and a request that the determination be reviewed.

Section 807.384(c) specifies that the request may include an explanation of why the determination should be changed, although this is not a jurisdictional requirement.

§807.385. Setting of Hearing

Section 807.385 sets forth the Agency requirements for setting a hearing.

Section 807.385(a) states that upon receipt of the request for a hearing, the Agency shall promptly mail a notice of hearing that sets the hearing for a reasonable time and place within 30 days from the receipt of the request.

Section 807.385(b) requires that the notice of hearing be in writing and include:

- (1) a statement of the date, time, place, and nature of the hearing;
- (2) a statement of the legal authority under which the hearing will be held; and
- (3) a short and plain statement of the issues that will be considered during the hearing.

Section 807.385(c) requires that the notice of hearing be issued at least 10 days before the date of the hearing unless a shorter period is permitted by statute.

Section 807.385(d) provides that the hearing notice shall state whether the hearing will be conducted by telephone or in-person. The notice also shall identify the location of an in-person hearing.

Section 807.385(e) specifies that parties needing special accommodations, including a bilingual or sign language interpreter, may request such before the setting of the hearing, if possible, or as soon as practical.

§807.386. Hearing Officer Independence and Impartiality

Section 807.386 sets out the powers and independence of hearing officers and the grounds and process for the disqualification and withdrawal of hearing officers.

Section 807.386(a) provides that a hearing officer has all necessary powers to conduct a full, fair, and impartial hearing. Hearing officers are to remain independent and impartial in all matters relating to active cases and in issuing their decisions.

Section 807.386(b) specifies that a hearing officer shall be disqualified if he or she has a personal interest in the outcome of the appeal or directly or indirectly participated in the determination on appeal. Any party may present facts to the Agency in support of a request to disqualify a hearing officer.

Section 807.386(c) allows the hearing officer to withdraw from a hearing to avoid the appearance of impropriety or partiality.

Section 807.386(d) provides that upon disqualification or withdrawal, the Agency shall assign an alternate hearing officer. This alternate hearing officer is not bound by any findings or conclusions made by the disqualified or withdrawn hearing officer.

§807.387. Hearing Procedures

Section 807.387 sets out the general procedures for a hearing.

Section 807.387(a) specifies that hearings shall be conducted in person in Austin, Texas, unless the parties agree to a telephonic hearing or request a different location.

Section 807.387(b)(1)–(4) specifies that all hearings shall be conducted informally and in such a manner as to ascertain the substantial rights of the parties. All issues relevant to the appeal shall be considered and addressed, and may include:

- (1) presentation of evidence;
- (2) examination of parties and witnesses;
- (3) additional evidence; and
- (4) appropriate hearing behavior.

Section 807.387(c)(1)–(3), Records, states that:

- (1) the hearing record shall include the audio recording of the proceedings and any other relevant evidence relied on by the hearing officer, including documents and other physical evidence entered as exhibits;
- (2) the hearing record shall be maintained in accordance with federal and state law; and
- (3) confidentiality of information contained in the hearing record shall be maintained in accordance with federal and state law.

§807.388. Postponements, Continuances, and Withdrawals

Section 807.388 authorizes the hearing officer to grant a postponement, continuance, or withdrawal.

Section 807.388(a) allows the hearing officer to grant a postponement of a hearing for good cause at a party's request.

Section 807.388(b) states that a continuance may be ordered at the discretion of the hearing officer in order to consider additional, necessary evidence or for any other reason deemed appropriate by the hearing officer.

Section 807.388(c) provides that a party may withdraw its appeal at any time before the final decision is issued.

§807.389. Evidence

Section 807.389 sets forth the evidence procedures for hearings.

Section 807.389(a), Evidence Generally, provides the standard for the admissibility of evidence, specifying that hearsay evidence may be admitted. However, the hearing officer has the authority to exclude relevant evidence to ensure fairness or to prevent undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence.

Section 807.389(b), Exchange of Exhibits, states that any documentary evidence to be presented during a telephonic hearing shall be exchanged with all parties with a copy given to the hearing officer in advance of the hearing. Documentary evidence to be presented at an in-person hearing shall be exchanged at the hearing.

Section 807.389(c), Stipulations, states that parties to an appeal, with the consent of the hearing officer, may agree in writing to the relevant facts involved. The hearing officer may decide the appeal based on such stipulation or, at the hearing officer's discretion, may set the appeal for hearing and take such further evidence deemed necessary.

Section 807.389(d), Experts and Evaluations, allows the hearing officer to order—or a party may request, if relevant and useful—an independent expert or a professional evaluation from a source satisfactory to the parties and the Agency. Such expert or evaluation shall be at the expense of the party(ies).

Section 807.389(e), Subpoenas, provides that:

(1) The hearing officer may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of records. A subpoena may be issued either at the request of a party or on the hearing officer's own motion.

(2) A party requesting a subpoena shall state the nature of the information desired, including names of any witnesses and the records that the requestor feels are necessary for the proper presentation of the case.

(3) The request shall be granted only to the extent the records or the testimony of the requested witnesses appears to be relevant to the issues on appeal.

(4) A denial of a subpoena request shall be made in writing or on the record, stating the reasons for such denial.

§807.390. Ex Parte Communications

Section 807.390(a) provides that the hearing officer shall not participate in ex parte communications, directly or indirectly, in any matter in connection with any substantive issue, with any interested person or party. Likewise, no person shall attempt to engage in ex parte communications with the hearing officer on behalf of any interested person or party.

Section 807.390(b) provides that if any such ex parte communication is received, the other parties should be given the opportunity to review the ex parte communication.

Section 807.390(c) specifies that hearing officers may communicate with parties or representatives about procedural matters.

Section 807.390(d) provides that a hearing officer may communicate with Agency personnel who are not otherwise involved in a case for the limited purpose of using the special skills or knowledge of the Agency and its staff in evaluating the evidence.

§807.391. Change in Determination

Section 807.391 sets out that the original issuer of the determination, which a party has appealed, may change the determination that is the basis of the appeal at any time up to the issuance of a decision by the hearing officer.

§807.392. Hearing Decision

Section 807.392 sets forth the time frame for and the content of a decision issued by a hearing officer under this subchapter.

Section 807.392(a) requires the hearing officer to prepare a written decision promptly after the hearing ends on behalf of the Agency.

Section 807.392(b)(1)–(3) provides that the decision shall be based exclusively on the evidence of record in the hearing and matters officially noticed in the hearing, and shall include:

- (1) a list of the individuals who appeared at the hearing;
- (2) the findings of fact and conclusions of law reached on the issues; and
- (3) the affirmation, reversal, or modification of the determination.

Section 807.392(c) states that unless a party files a timely motion for a rehearing, the Agency may assume continuing jurisdiction to modify or correct a hearing decision until the expiration of 30 calendar days from the mailing date of the hearing decision.

§807.393. Motion for Reopening

Section 807.393 sets forth the time frame and requirements for a motion for the reopening of a hearing.

Section 807.393(a) provides that if a party does not appear for a hearing, the party may request the reopening of the hearing within 30 calendar days from the date the decision is mailed.

Section 807.393(b) states that the motion shall be in writing and detail the reason for failing to appear at the hearing.

Section 807.393(c) provides that the Agency may schedule a hearing on whether to grant the reopening.

Section 807.393(d) allows that a motion may be granted if the hearing officer determines that the party has shown good cause for failing to appear at the hearing.

§807.394. Motion for Rehearing

Section 807.394 sets forth the time frame and requirements for a motion for rehearing.

Section 807.394(a) states that a party has 30 calendar days from the date the decision is mailed to file a motion for rehearing. A rehearing may be granted only for the presentation of new evidence.

Section 807.394(b) requires that a motion for rehearing be in writing and allege the new evidence to be considered. The party must show a compelling reason why the evidence was not presented at the hearing.

Section 807.394(c) states that if the hearing officer determines that the alleged, new evidence warrants a rehearing, a hearing shall be scheduled at a reasonable time and place.

Section 807.394(d) requires that the hearing officer issue a written decision in response to a timely filed motion for rehearing.

Section 807.394(e) states that the Agency may assume continuing jurisdiction to modify, correct, or reform a decision until the expiration of 30 calendar days from the mailing date of the hearing decision.

§807.395. Finality of Decision

Section 807.395 sets forth the conditions under which the decision of the hearing officer is the final decision of the Agency, and gives the Agency the discretion to assume continuing jurisdiction.

Section 807.395(a) states that the decision of the hearing officer becomes the final decision of the Agency after the expiration of 30 calendar days from the mailing date of the decision unless within that time:

- (1) a request for reopening is filed with the Agency;
- (2) a request for rehearing is filed with the Agency; or
- (3) the Agency assumes continuing jurisdiction to modify or correct the decision.

Section 807.395(b) provides that any decision issued in response to a request for a reopening or rehearing or a modification or correction issued by the Agency shall be final on the expiration of 30 calendar days from the mailing date of the decision, modification, or correction.
